Media Program

The objective of the AAF's activities in the area of media focuses on bringing academicians and practitioners together to share experiences and build mutual respect for each group's practices and beliefs, whilst facilitating constructive exchanges between these groups.