Medical Academic Partners

Our academic partners in medicine provide us with access to leading professionals, who serve pro bono, from all the medical specialties.

We collaborate closely with the preeminent US and European medical schools and their affiliated hospitals including:

Weill Cornell Medical College

Weill Cornell Medical College of Cornell University and its affiliated hospitals conduct 15 seminars annually:
New York-Presbyterian
Hospital for Special Surgery
Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center
The College of Physicians and Surgeons
Methodist Hospital

The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia – University of Pennsylvania

The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia – University of Pennsylvania conducts eight pediatric and leadership Salzburg CHOP Medical Seminars each year.

Duke University Medical Center

Duke University Medical Center conducts one Salzburg Duke Seminar each year.
Cleveland Clinic

Cleveland Clinic conducts three Salzburg Cleveland Seminars each year.

Columbia University

College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University conducts two Salzburg Columbia Seminars each year.

European School of Urology

European School of Urology co-directs the annual ESU-Weill Cornell Master Class in Urology.

Vienna OMI

The Vienna Open Medical Institute (Vienna OMI) is a joint initiative of the Vienna Hospital Association (VHA), the American Austrian Foundation (AAF), the Medical University of Vienna (MedUni), the Viennese Society of Physicians, the Vienna Medical Chamber and the Austrian Academy of Sciences (ÖAW) to provide state-of-the-art scientific and clinical postgraduate education in medicine to colleagues from countries in transition using Vienna's excellent resources.

The Vienna OMI supports the Viennese clinical as well as research observerships by providing access to leading Austrian physicians as mentors, access to education in clinical research and access to medical literature at the offices of the Viennese Society of Physicians and a variety of other opportunities, depending upon the academic schedule.
Austrian faculty members from the following Austrian Institutes joined and assisted over the past years:

- Medical University of Vienna
- Viennese Hospital Association (VHA) with 13 hospitals and 11 geriatric centers in Vienna
- Innsbruck University Hospital
- University Hospital Graz
- Medical University of Graz
- Children’s Hospital of Feldkirch
- Vienna Hospital Association
- Salzburger Landeskliniken (SALK)
- Christian-Doppler-Klinik
- General Hospital Klagenfurt
- Orthopedic Hospital Speising
- Hospital of Barmherzigen Schwestern Linz

and from many other institutions as well.