This year’s Vienna School of Medicine Gala will take place on November 11, 2019 at Van Swieten Saal of the Medical University of Vienna. Dr. Peter Husslein and his colleagues will speak about discoveries and contributions of Viennese physicians and scientists to the development of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

The event is organized by the Open Medical Institute, the Josephinum Museum and the Medical University of Vienna. For more information, please see the event-website: www.wienmedizin.at
