SALZBURG WEILL CORNELL SEMINAR “OPHTHALMOLOGY”
Sunday 17 April – Saturday 23 April, 2016
Schloss Arenberg, Salzburg, Austria

Course Director: Gary J. Lelli, MD
Co-Course Director: Univ. Prof. Dr. med. Susanne Binder

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS:

Univ. Prof. Dr. med. Susanne Binder
Professor and Chairman, Department of Ophthalmology
The Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Retinology and Biomicroscopic Lasersurgery
Rudolf Foundation Clinic
Vienna, Austria
  • A New Classification of Vitreomacular Relationships
  • Current Status of Cell Derived Therapies for Retinal Degeneration
  • Non-responders in Anti-VEGF Therapy

OA Dr. med. Simon Brunner
Professor and Senior Physician, Department of Ophthalmology
The Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Retinology and Biomicroscopic Lasersurgery
Rudolf Foundation Clinic
Vienna, Austria
  • Retinal Vascular Occlusions: An Interdisciplinary Approach
  • Update on Retinal Vascular Occlusions Including the Vitreoretinal Interface

Charles Cole, MD
Clinical Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology; Weill Medical College of Cornell University
Director; Eye Surgeon PC
Director, Glaucoma Service; New York Hospital Queens
New York, New York
  • Surgical Management of Glaucoma
  • Cataract Surgery and Glaucoma
  • Managing Complications During Cataract Surgery
Priv.-Doz. Dr. Christiane Isolde Falkner-Radler
Associate Professor, Department of Ophthalmology
The Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Retinology and Biomicroscopic Lasersurgery
Rudolf Foundation Clinic
Vienna, Austria
- The Challenge in Macular Surgery
- Current Treatment in Retinal Detachment

Gary J. Lelli, Jr., MD
Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology; Weill Medical College of Cornell University
Assistant Attending Ophthalmologist; NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital
New York, New York
- Ouch! Eyelid & Adnexal Trauma Pearls
- Diagnosing Eyelid Cancers and Reconstructing their Defects

Benjamin Levine, MD
Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology; Weill Medical College of Cornell University
Assistant Attending Ophthalmologist; NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital
New York, New York
- Management of Open Globe Injuries
- Inpatient Consults: the Bread and Butter
- Tearing for the General Ophthalmologist

Priv. Doz. Dr. Ulrike Stolba
Associate Professor, Department of Ophthalmology
The Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Retinology and Biomicroscopic Lasersurgery
Rudolf Foundation Clinic
Vienna, Austria
- You See What You Know: OCT Reading in Diabetic Macular Edema
- Did Shakespeare Foresee Vitrectomy for Diabetics?

Sarju Patel, MD
Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology; Weill Medical College of Cornell University
Assistant Attending Ophthalmologist; NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital
New York, New York
- Scleritis: Infectious Versus Inflammatory
- Posterior Infectious Uveitis
- Masqueraders