

OPEN MEDICAL INSTITUTE

SALZBURG DUKE UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER SEMINAR IN “FAMILY MEDICINE”

Sunday 11 March – Saturday 17 March 2018

Schloss Arenberg, Salzburg, Austria

Course Director: J. Lloyd Michener, MD

Co-Course Director: Manfred Maier, MD

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS:

Kathy Andolsek, MD, MPH

Professor in Community and Family Medicine

Duke University School of Medicine

Durham, NC

- Workshop: Tobacco Control
- Hypertension Control-in Office
- Hypertension Control Community Strategies

Teah Bayless, DO

Family Medicine Doctor

Duke University School of Medicine

Durham, NC

- Workshop: Motivational Interviewing
- Cancer Screening-in Office
- Cancer Screening-in Community
- Case of the Aged-in Office
- Case of the Aged-in Community

Don Bradley, MD, MHS-CL

Associate Consulting Professor

Department of Community and Family Medicine

Duke University School of Medicine

Durham, NC

- Methods of Quality Improvement
- Workshop: Motivational Interviewing
- Obesity: Diagnosis and Management in Office
- Obesity: Community Strategies
- Advanced Methods – Registries and EHRs
- Community Health Homes

Manfred Maier, MD

Chief of Service, Department of Family Medicine

Vienna Medical University

Vienna, Austria

- Family Medicine in Europe
- How to Present a Case
- Fellows' Case Presentations

J. Lloyd Michener, MD

Chief Executive Officer

Department of Community and Family Medicine

Duke University School of Medicine

Durham, NC

- Introductions and Pre-Seminar Test
- Principles of Community and Stakeholder Engagement
- Primary Care in Flux Responding to the Needs of our Countries

Craig Thomas, PhD

Director, Division of Public Health Performance Improvement

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Atlanta, GA

- The Shifting Epidemiology of Disease
- Methods of Data Analysis and Display
- Strategies for Community-wide Health Improvement