

Katharine Eltz-Aulitzky

Katharine Eltz-Aulitzky is the Executive Director of The American Austrian Foundation. She has served in this position since 1993. During her tenure she has expanded existing programs in medicine and initiated new ones in media and the arts.

She attended Convent of the Sacred Heart in New York City, Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio and the University of Vienna. Katharine serves on the International Advisory Council at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York.